tips & tricks

Interviews with Estonian probation officers about challenges in their daily work

Your experience in probation supervision

Ülle

I've been involved in probation supervision work since 2004; first as a secretary and since 2008, after graduating from Lääne-Viru Institution of Professional Higher Education, as a probation officer.

Estelle

My first experience in probation supervision comes ...

Interview with Latvian probation officers about challenges in their work and techniques that help recover

We asked our colleagues to express their opinion to learn more about the experience and techniques of the State Probation Service, how they cope with tension in their professional activity and what the techniques that help recover, find power to live, work and dream are ...
